

Dear Sponsors and Friends,

Thank you again for your continued support for the children at Loving Hands Orphanage. God continues to bless this special place in Turbe, Haiti. I returned to Haiti in January; it was lovely, with temperatures in the 80's and low humidity. The children are all healthy and happy.

Max, our English teacher, continues to hold English classes every Saturday morning.

I had the privilege of sitting in on his class and was happy to see how well the children are completing the lessons in their workbooks. I was also pleased with the improvement I heard in their conversational English.

Our sewing classes continue to be taught every Saturday by Orlando, our sewing teacher. The classes are providing sewing skills that will benefit the children throughout their lifetime; whether as a profession or as a skill to be used within their own families. The children are wearing shirts, skirts and pants they made with a sense of pride and accomplishment.

Benita, the house mother, teaches dance classes which the children attend with enthusiasm. Such a joy to see their smiling faces and hear their laughter!

There were many hugs and kisses and each child was assured that we and Jesus love them.

I also spent time with the 8 young adults at Espere Kay (Hope House) while Dave and Deb Kreyszig enjoyed a week's vacation. It was a blessed time of prayer and worship with these awesome young adults.

I left Haiti with a content heart and praising God for the privilege of serving Him in Haiti once more. God willing, I will be returning to Haiti on April 27th. If anyone wishes to send me a letter, picture or small gift for your child I will be happy to deliver it.

Thank you again and know that your monthly donation is making a difference in the lives of these precious children and a solid foundation for their future.

Blessings and love,
Lucy (Mama Luc)
